Community-Based Child Abuse Prevention Overview

- Community-Based Child Abuse Prevention (CBCAP) programs, which are authorized as part of the Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act (CAPTA), has a rich history of promoting efforts to support families and prevent child maltreatment. The law emphasizes support for community-based efforts to develop, operate, expand, enhance, and coordinate initiatives, programs and activities to prevent child abuse and neglect.
- To support community-based efforts to develop, operate, expand, enhance, and coordinate initiatives, programs, and activities to prevent child abuse and neglect and to support the coordination of resources and activities to better strengthen and support families to reduce the likelihood of child abuse and neglect; and
- To foster understanding, appreciation, and knowledge of diverse populations in order to effectively prevent and treat child abuse and neglect.

Children's Trust Fund Overview

- The Children's Trust Fund (CTF) is dedicated to the prevention of child abuse and neglect. It was established in 1985 by the State Legislature (NRS 432.131) and is administered by the DCFS Grant Management Unit (GMU) in collaboration with the Family Program Office. The CTF is a special account that receives fees from Nevada birth and death certificates.
- Funding is provided to programs that support community-based efforts to prevent child abuse and neglect, provide parenting education, self-protection education for children and coordination of resources and activities to strengthen and support families.

CBCAP/CTF Funding Priorities

- Primary Prevention
 - Primary Prevention (Universal) programs and strategies which are available to all families.
 - These activities are meant to impact families prior to any allegations of abuse and neglect. Primary prevention services include public education activities, parent education classes that are open to anyone in the community, and family support programs.
- Secondary Prevention
 - Secondary (targeted) Prevention efforts which target children and families at risk of abuse or neglect.
 - Secondary prevention consists of activities targeted to families that have one or more risk factors including families with substance abuse, teen parents, parents of special need children, single parents, and low-income families.
 - Secondary prevention services include services such as, parent education classes targeted for high-risk parents, respite care for parents of a child with a disability, or home visiting programs for new parents.
